

DICK TATE

A Petition For His Pardon Laid Before Gov. Worthington.

HON. JOHN R. FELLOWS DYING.

Osgood, the Yale Football Player, Killed in Cuba.

ESCAPING GAS KILLS SEVEN PEOPLE.

Frankfort, Dec. 5.—Shortly after noon yesterday there was carried into the executive office to Acting Governor Worthington, the following petition:

"To His Excellency, Governor of Kentucky: The undersigned most respectfully, but most earnestly, petition you to grant a pardon to James W. Tate, former treasurer of Kentucky, now under indictment in the Franklin circuit court for embezzlement.

"Mr. Tate has already suffered much by voluntary banishment, while the sufferings of his innocent family have been even more torturing than his own. He has been a wanderer for years from home, family, country and friends, and has expiated, it seems to us, whatever misdeeds in this particular he may have needlessly committed.

"Besides this we have every reason to believe that he has been more sinned against than sinning. If he took any of the public funds improperly, it was more from an unfortunate excessive amiability of character, and a disinclination to say 'no' to his friends than through any premeditated desire to defraud the Commonwealth. We believe that the amount with which he is charged as a defaulter is largely exaggerated, and his presence here would be of much service to the State in getting at the true state of affairs. Therefore we most earnestly petition you to pardon him."

Gov. Worthington has not yet begun the consideration of the application. In discussing it this afternoon, however, he said in substance:

"I have always believed that Tate was more sinned against than sinning. But I believe that he owes it to the state to make all the restitution in his power. If I could see Tate, and he would tell me he would do this, I would pardon him."

For the Murder of His Wife.

McLeansboro, Ill., Dec. 5.—Fred Behme, who killed his wife and baby Easter Sunday last, was hanged yesterday at 12:30 p. m. His death was almost instantaneous.

The crime for which Behme died was the most fiendish ever committed in Southern Illinois. After braining his wife with an ax, he then took his 3-year-old child to the barn, put a halter around its neck and hung it to a rafter. The weight of the child being insufficient to strangle it, the murderer pushed down the child by the shoulders until its tongue protruded from the mouth and the eyes forced from their sockets.

Elton Killed Joy.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 5.—The mystery of the killing of Thomas Joy last Monday has been explained by a confession from James W. Elton, a park policeman. He confessed to the corner that he and Joy were together at Muldon's saloon on the sidewalk and that they both had been drinking. They became engaged in a scuffle over a revolver, when it was accidentally discharged. This confession removes suspicion from Muldon and Farrell, who have been under arrest, charged with the murder, but who are still held.

Moonshiners Raided.

Sergeant, Ky., Dec. 5.—The U. S. Marshall made a moonshine raid in Letcher county yesterday and destroyed three stills and a quantity of moonshine whiskey. The moonshiners had learned of the officers' approach and had escaped.

John R. Fellow Dying.

New York, Dec. 5.—Hon. John R. Fellow, the eminent Democratic politician, and successful business man, is lying at the point of death at his home in this city. Mr. Fellow took a most active part in the recent campaign, making speeches in all the southern and eastern states for sound money.

Only America Recognized.

London, Dec. 5.—The Constantinople correspondent of the Daily Mail hears that the Porte has decided to decline the payment of all claims for indemnity for Massacres except those advanced by Americans.

Suffocated by Gas.

Boston, Dec. 5.—Seven people in one house were suffocated last night by escaping gas. As usual, some one blew out the gas.

Killed by the Spaniards.

Havana, Dec. 5.—Word has reached here of the death of Osgood the famous Yale foot ball player. He had joined the insurgents, and was killed in battle by the Spaniards.

Early Session Favored.

Cincinnati, O., Dec. 5.—St. John Boyle, of Louisville, favors an early session of the Kentucky legislature. Mr. Boyle is the caucus nominee for Senator and will remain so unless another caucus is called, which is most likely. He believes that no risks should be taken and that the extra session should be called at the first of the year.

ARSENIC

In the Bread Eaten By a Hundred Milwaukee Families.

Milwaukee, Wis., Dec. 5.—What is thought to be an attempt at wholesale poisoning, in a large measure successful, was reported to the health department yesterday, when information was given of the sudden and serious illness of about 100 families, numbering between 500 and 600 persons, living in the northwestern part of the city.

The cause of the sickness was traced to bread sold at a bakery owned by Otto Figlethaler, which has a very large trade. Last night an analysis of the bread showed that it contained arsenic. The 600 persons poisoned are living, but a large number of cases are considered serious, if not critical.

The police are convinced from the investigation tonight that arsenic was placed in the bread with intent to cause the death or serious illness of Figlethaler's customers, with the object of running his business.

CIRCUIT COURT.

A Demurrer Sustained Today by Judge Bishop.

The Civil Term Is Over.—Criminal Court Monday.

Judge Bishop today sustained a demurrer to the petition of the Paducah Gas Company, in the case of the Gas Company against Sheriff Holland, to enjoin him from collecting taxes on the plant. Unless the plaintiffs amend the petition, the sheriff will proceed to collect the taxes.

In the case of G. W. Smith against Dr. B. T. Frank, a judgment was rendered in favor of the defendant. The action was to recover a home-lease from some property purchased by Dr. Frank at a commissioner's sale.

Mary S. Potter was granted a divorce against S. Monroe Potter, and granted the custody of two children. Several judgments were filed and there will be no more civil cases considered until next January.

COOL NIGHT OF IT.

A Forsaken Pair Camp on Island Creek Bank.

Late yesterday afternoon a poorly clad woman, accompanied by a girl about 12 years of age, appeared in Mechanicsburg. They were strangers, and seemed to have walked a great distance.

They located themselves on the bank near Island Creek, and built a fire, remaining there all night, exposed to the cold and compelled to sit on the damp ground before the fire until daylight.

A great many people saw them, but no one knew who they were nor from whence they came. They left after daybreak.

TROUBLE BETWEEN BOYS.

This afternoon Machinist Emery, of South Sixth street, applied to Judge Sanders for a warrant against a son of Officer Wheeler, whom he charged with striking his little son on the head with a rock. There is a large gash in the little fellow's head. Owing to the age of the boys no warrant was issued.

DON'T MISS IT.

Edouard Remy, the eminent violinist, will doubtless be greeted by a packed house Monday night. The seats are selling rapidly and all music lovers will be in attendance. The program is one of the best to be secured, and the occasion will be one long to be remembered.

ONLY CIVIL BUSINESS.

Justice Barnett held court in Mechanicsburg this morning, but only business of a civil nature was considered.

VERY DARING.

Inspector Vickery Has Been Investigating.

STURGIS POSTOFFICE ROBBERY.

The Two Robbers Took Their Time and Got All In Sight.

GOVERNMENT DETECTIVES AT WORK.

Postoffice Inspector J. W. Vickery was in the city this morning en route up the Illinois Central from Mayfield and other points below.

"I always leave this end of the state for the last," he said to a Star representative, "and when I do come down you may be sure that I find a large amount of work accumulated. I have to often look up all bonds of government officials and ascertain if the sureties are worth the amount represented in the bonds."

The inspector has just been to Sturgis investigating the recent post office robbery there. According to him it was one of the most daring ever perpetrated.

Postmaster Will Dyer was at work on his books when two men entered and covered him with their pistols. A bi-metallic league was in session just across the street, and a drug store was open not far away. The robbers compelled him to go to the front door, allowed him to put his hand in his pocket and get his key, and then compelled him to lock the front door.

Removing a stout string from the wall, they securely tied him by his hands. They went to work then and deliberately took all the cash in sight, about $200 and about $450 in stamps. They withdrew to a back room and divided the spoils, returned to the room where the helpless postmaster was bound in the chair, and after warning, delivered another ammunition and left.

The postmaster dragged himself and the chair to the front door, unlocked the door with his hands behind him, and crept across the street, where he was cut loose and told his story.

"Don't you think that story is a little gauzy?" the inspector was asked.

"Well, it does sound like a fairy tale, but the postmaster is a man of good reputation, and besides the account he gives is quite possible. Of course an investigation is being made, but no clue has not yet been obtained."

According to the inspector's information the men were masked, and the postmaster attempted to engage them in conversation, but they wouldn't talk except to tell him to keep quiet. Government detectives are at work on the case.

BY APOPLEXY.

Chef Tatro In a Critical Condition.

Other Notes of the Sick and Injured.

Chef Tatro, of the Palmer, is in a dangerous condition at his residence on South Sixth street.

Yesterday morning about 2 o'clock he was stricken by apoplexy, and came near dying then. Little improvement was visible last night, but today his condition is not so bad. If he recovers it may be ten days before he is out again.

Mr. Adrian Grief, of near Clark's river, is just out from a siege of erysipelas.

Several days ago his hair burned, and in fighting fire he was severely burned on the face, his injuries developing into erysipelas.

Bob Grief, a brother to the above, is slowly improving from an operation recently performed upon him.

He was carrying salt several weeks ago and attempted to carry a whole barrel. He succeeded in getting away with the first one, but when he swung the second one to his shoulder something snapped and he gradually grew worse until an operation was performed. He expects to be out again by Christmas.

Yesterday afternoon Master Dow Wilcox was handling a Flobert rifle at the residence of his father, Mr. I. D. Wilcox, corner of Court and Sixth streets, when the trigger caught on a button of his coat and the gun was discharged. The bullet entered the right foot between the great and second toe.

TWO WIVES.

J. J. Hendricks Seemed to Be Well Supplied.

J. J. Hendricks is said to be in trouble at his home three miles below Birmingham, Marshall county. He seems to be an uxorious gentleman, having two robust wives, one of whom unexpectedly came in from St. Louis yesterday.

He was in the tie business formerly, and he and his first wife separated, she going to St. Louis. In the meantime, about two years ago, Hendricks married Mrs. Dink Petway, a widow, of near Benton, with several farms and a strong objection to living single.

Yesterday the St. Louis wife returned but her erstwhile husband refused to be reconciled, and left the abode of his last wife, who chased the interloper with a pistol.

Hendricks is still away and the St. Louis woman is in Birmingham nursing her wrath and considering the advisability of getting a warrant for bigamy against the destroyer of her happiness.

BOSTONA DELAYED.

Went Through Himself Yesterday at Cairo.

The big Bostona, out of Memphis for Cincinnati, which was due here today, "run through herself" yesterday afternoon at Cairo, and was forced to take the bank.

One of the cylinders was broken, and the first engineer was painfully, but not seriously injured.

AWAY FROM HOME.

Unfortunate Death of a Young Tennessean.

Death of Mrs. Eldridge, of Ballard, Near Woodville.

Lloyd Taylor, aged 38, whose home is in Tennessee, died of pneumonia this morning at the residence of his brother-in-law, Engineer Johnson, of Langstaff & Orme's mill, on Jackson street. He came here about ten days ago and had been ill for several days past. The remains will be interred tomorrow at New Liberty cemetery, near Rossington, this county.

Mrs. Gertrude Ballard, wife of Eldridge Ballard, of near Woodville, died last night of childbirth, aged 18. The remains were today buried at Spring Bayou cemetery.

TOOK AN APPEAL.

Prosecuting Attorney Reeves Objects to Judge Sanders' Decision.

Wanted to Amend a Warrant After the Defendant Pleaded Guilty.

An important question came up before Judge Sanders this morning. A young man named C. W. Russell was charged with being drunk and disorderly.

It was a very ugly case, according to reports, the defendant having broken lamps, furniture and glasses, and turned over the stove at his boarding house, in addition to firing his pistol into the wall.

The warrant charged him simply with being drunk and disorderly. Attorney R. T. Lightfoot represented him, and when the case was called Prosecuting Attorney Reeves announced ready, and the defense announced ready and pleaded guilty to the charge in the warrant.

Mr. Reeves, however, desired to amend the warrant by making the charge more specific, and show it's alleged aggravated nature. Attorney Lightfoot demurred, contending that all further action was barred, as the defendant had once been placed in jeopardy and pleaded guilty.

Judge Sanders decided in favor of Mr. Lightfoot, sustaining the contention that after a plea of guilty has been entered in a case the warrant cannot be amended. The young man was fined $10 and costs.

Prosecuting Attorney Reeves asked for an appeal to the circuit court, which was granted, and will file a written copy of the record with the amendment rejected by Judge Sanders.

ANNUAL ELECTION.

Held Last Night of the C. K. and L. of America.

A New Set of Officers Chosen at the Meeting.

There was an enthusiastic and well attended meeting of the Catholic Knights and Ladies of America last night.

The annual election of officers was held, resulting in the election of the following:

NO ARRESTS PROBABLE.

Detective Wickliffe returned this morning from Briensburg, where he has been working on the Daisy Sullivan tragedy. He says that the excitement is still great and that the indications are no more arrests will be made.

ROBBED AND BURNED.

Depot at Cerulian Springs a Total Loss.

Daring Act of Scoundrels on the O. V. R. R.

The depot at Cerulian Springs was looted by robbers last night about 11:30 o'clock, and burned to the ground. The depot is on the Ohio Valley railroad, and the loss is at present unknown.

So far as is known no clue has been obtained to the perpetrators of the robbery and arson. A large amount of money was taken before the robbers put the torch to the building.

NIBLETT GOES BACK.

Deputy Sheriff Comes Up From Metropolis.

Will Stand Trial For Housebreaking in a Few Days.

Deputy Sheriff Evans, of Metropolis, came to the city this morning with requisition papers from Gov. Bradley for John Niblett, wanted at Metropolis for housebreaking and petty larceny.

He was here after Niblett several days ago, but Niblett refused to go without a requisition. He was indicted by the grand jury Tuesday and will be tried at this term of court. He is charged with breaking into a house and stealing a set of harness, and doesn't deny stealing the harness, but says he did not break in. The prisoner was taken back this forenoon.

Hawaiian Annexation. Chicago Inter Ocean.

One of the questions which will come to the front on a change of national administration will be that of the Hawaiian annexation.

For some reason that never came to the surface President Cleveland made up his mind before he was inaugurated that unless the Senate ratified the treaty of annexation before he took hold the treaty should be withdrawn and pigeonholed for his four years of office. Probably he would never have had the chance to pigeonhole it if the Senate had been able to read his mind. It is reasonably certain that he expected to renege the monarchy. He certainly tried his utmost to do it, and when at last he was compelled to give that up, he left all interest in Hawaii.

The Hawaiian situation has undergone very little change; none of any consequence. They way the authorities met and checkmated the attempt to restore the monarchy showed that they knew their business. Our state department was outclassed. The result was greatly to the credit of the government at Honolulu.

When the treaty of four years ago was made the Hawaiian government was provisional, now it is a full-fledged republic. That makes no difference, however, with the feasibility of annexation. The area of the United States has been mainly enlarged by treaty with a government which maintained its own individuality and was an independent nation, but we acquired Texas by treaty with a republic which extinguished itself by the very act of annexation. That treaty was a clear case of suicide. But if the government of Texas wanted to blot itself out it had the right to do so. It was nobody else's business. It is probable that Hawaii will follow in the footsteps of Texas.

There is no doubt Hawaii wants to come into the Union, and we know of no good reason why it should not. There is very nearly a unanimous feeling in the country, so far as the matter is thought of at all, in favor of adding that delightful group of islands to our inheritance.

SATURDAY, DEC. 5, 1896.

McKinley gets one vote and Bryan two in Wyoming. South Dakota goes for Bryan by 182.

THE official count of Massachusetts gives McKinley a plurality of 173,265. Mr. Harrison's plurality in 1892 was 26,001.

It is stated, Mr. Bryan has fixed the price of his lectures at $3000 and expenses, his head must have swelled even more than he has been credited with.

The gold reserve is steadily increasing, same being nearly $132,000,000. National bond issues in times of peace are a thing of the past.

DURING the month of November the silver coinage amounted to $1,914,000. That's the way silver is being demonetized by sound money men.

GOMEZ is thundering at the gates of Havana, while Weyer is conducting a make-believe campaign against Maceo, and slaughtering non-combatants.

A COTTON mill employing 1,000 operatives will be built at Fitzgerald, Ga. Such a mill would be a valuable addition to Paducah's industries and a good investment for the company that would build it.

THE willingness, almost eagerness, of Corbett to endorse the decision of the referee, declaring Sharkey the winner, is rather suspicious, and will strengthen the growing belief that Corbett is afraid to meet "Lanky Bob" Fitzsimmons.

No other president the country has had has taken the people into his confidence so little as has President Cleveland. The gravest errors of policy Mr. Cleveland has committed have been those he has committed by stealth, so to speak.

THE city press is now publishing as a fact the probability of the removal of the Illinois Central shops from Paducah. Thus our city is getting more advertising than she wants. What good can come of insisting on a calamity which the railroad officials deny, is not apparent.

THE silver Democrats are reading the sound money Democrats out of the party some more. Now some of them actually deny the right of a sound money Democrat to vote for a silverite! The admission will probably be heeded by the sound money Democratic members of the legislature.

JOHN G. CARLISLE has been honored in an unexpected manner. A new government ferry boat plying in New York harbor has been named J. G. Carlisle. The boat is a model of its kind and a nautical beauty. Now let another ferryboat be christened Joseph Clay Styles Blackburn and the angel of Peace will flutter its white wings unscathed.

It is stated that "Amazons," or female Cuban soldiers in Cuban uniforms will be shot, just as are the male captives. While there can be no difference in the legal status of the two, and if one is liable to execution the other must be likewise liable, yet there is something excessively revolting in the one case that attaches only in a lesser degree to the other. There is nothing too atrocious for the Spanish governor-general in Cuba to do.

THE extensions of the civil service rules by President Cleveland have been so great that the hundreds of consular positions to be filled by appointment of the president but fifty-three are now open to the operation of the civil service and subject to the operation of the civil service.

an avalanche of public opinion will sweep down upon Washington that no administration can withstand. War with all its terrible consequences will be far preferable to the national humiliation and disgrace of tolerating longer that blot upon civilization, Spanish rule in Cuba. Cuba must be free.

THAT EXTRA SESSION.
Views of One Who Does Not Believe It Advisable.
To the Editor of the Sun.

Dear Sir: In your issue of the 3d under head of "That Extra Session" some prominent Republican is quoted urging and demanding the governor for delay in calling an extra session. In another column it is suggested that a Republican is needed at Washington to vote on presidential nominations after March 4th.

The Republican party was put in charge of the affairs of state pledged to an economical administration. The constitution provides for a regular session to transact such business as the governor may call attention to. In accordance with this provision the legislature met and carried out the recommendations and a Democratic senate failed so to do, and the responsibility of our present condition rests upon it.

While our state warrants are unpaid, they are in the hands of bankers and men abundantly able to carry them for the discount they receive and no other reason has been advanced for calling an extra session except for the election of a senator. Why should the state be put to the expense of six or seven hundred dollars a day to elect a free silver man, when Gov. Bradley can fill the vacancy by appointment at no expense? What can insure us a sound money senator?

It is proclaimed by the friends of Mr. Hunter that he has the nomination, also that his friends will support him always, and it is also known that not a few free silver Democrats will support him in preference to Carlisle or any other Republican or sound money man. It is also well known that Mr. Hunter signed a free silver agreement last winter.

What greater service could the Governor, who holds his commission from the people, perform than to prevent the election of a free silver man to the United States Senate, which he did last winter in calling out the militia to preserve order and peace and has since received the plaudits of all liberty-loving people.

The last two elections in Kentucky have made a great many converts to Republicanism, and to no man is due more honor for this than to Gov. Bradley. His fearless honesty has won the admiration of his people and I repeat he can serve the State no better than to prevent the election of a free silver Republican or Democrat.

to appointments in reward of political services. They are at present filled with Democrats, who are presumed to hold life positions. It is within the range of possibility that Mr. McKinley may look at the matter differently, however.

The advantages of our Kentucky climate become more apparent with each succeeding season. In fact no states in the Union have more equable climate than the northern tier of the Southern states. The blizzards that freeze up the Northwest states become mild zephyrs by the time they cross the Ohio. The tornadoes that break the monotony of a western summer seldom ventures into Kentucky, and then only to taper off. The northerly that reverse the seasons without notice on a summer's day in Texas are entirely unknown here. Protracted drouths are remembered only by the oldest inhabitant. In winter the temperature drops just low enough to purify the atmosphere.

LEUT. GOV. WORTHINGTON when he arrived at Frankfort to assume the duties of Governor during the absence of Gov. Bradley, facetiously told a reporter that, if the papers complained that he was not granting pardons fast enough, he could say "that the old man isn't feeling very well." But seriously, has not the pardoning power been used a little too generously by the various Governors of Kentucky? The ninety and nine guilty men go free before the innocent man is convicted in this State. The pardoning power is an extraordinary prerogative and is given to the Chief Executive that justice may be meted out when later developments have proved that the judgment of the court was not in accordance with all the facts; or in those rare cases when public opinion demands the extension of mercy that the courts are powerless to grant without establishing a dangerous precedent. Any other use defeats justice, discourages the public prosecutor and engenders a more reckless spirit among the criminal classes.

In another column will be found a communication on the subject of the much mooted extra session of the Kentucky legislature. It is not entirely in accord with the views of the Sun, but is given place in pursuance of our desire to be entirely fair in the discussion of all that pertains to Republican interests. The writer suggests the probability of the election of a free silver Republican, should the election be now held. We do not believe that danger is imminent. While it is true the governor may fill the vacancy by appointment and thus insure a Republican Senator of sound money principles, such a senator would hold office only till another session of the legislature. In the meantime the conditions would certainly be changed and it is by no means certain that the Republicans would then as now be able to command a majority of the legislature on joint ballot. Should a Democrat then be elected he would hold for the full term. On the other hand if a Republican is now elected he is undoubtedly can, he will be a full term senator, and the true political sentiment of Kentucky will have representation. In the view the Sun takes of it, the exigencies of the situation demand an extra session and that without useless delay.

CUBA MUST BE FREE.
At the time in the history of Rome when Carthage was contending with the Eternal City for the supremacy of the world, Cato, a Roman Senator, was wont to conclude all his speeches with the one expression, "Carthago Delenda est." (Carthage must be destroyed.)

The watchword of the coming session of Congress should be "Cuba must be free." The blood of thousands of Cuban heroes, ruthlessly slain while defending their homes and their country, cries to Heaven for vengeance. Modern warfare shows no parallel to the savage butcheries that are daily occurring in that ill-fated island.

Cuba must be free! The memory of Washington and his immortal compatriots demands it; the ashes of Andrew Jackson, the blood of the martyred Lincoln, the blessed remembrance of countless thousands who, clad in the blue or the gray, gave up their lives for a principle they believed to be right, all unite in a cry to the Arbitrator of Nations, the Defender of the Oppressed, that Cuba may be free.

The conflict waged there is irrepressible. The desperate courage with which it is fought, the sublime heroism of the Cuban patriots, proves that, in the broad sense of the word, the Cubans are true Americans. The spirit immortalized by the sufferings at Valley Forge finds a counterpart in the heroic resistance of the Cubans to the oppression of Spain.

Cuba must be free. The American people demand it. From North to South; from the Atlantic to the Pacific come the utterings of a people that at last is thoroughly aroused and will brook delay no longer. A few more massacres by Weyer and an avalanche of public opinion will sweep down upon Washington that no administration can withstand. War with all its terrible consequences will be far preferable to the national humiliation and disgrace of tolerating longer that blot upon civilization, Spanish rule in Cuba. Cuba must be free.

Dear Sir: In your issue of the 3d under head of "That Extra Session" some prominent Republican is quoted urging and demanding the governor for delay in calling an extra session. In another column it is suggested that a Republican is needed at Washington to vote on presidential nominations after March 4th.

The Republican party was put in charge of the affairs of state pledged to an economical administration. The constitution provides for a regular session to transact such business as the governor may call attention to. In accordance with this provision the legislature met and carried out the recommendations and a Democratic senate failed so to do, and the responsibility of our present condition rests upon it.

While our state warrants are unpaid, they are in the hands of bankers and men abundantly able to carry them for the discount they receive and no other reason has been advanced for calling an extra session except for the election of a senator. Why should the state be put to the expense of six or seven hundred dollars a day to elect a free silver man, when Gov. Bradley can fill the vacancy by appointment at no expense? What can insure us a sound money senator?

It is proclaimed by the friends of Mr. Hunter that he has the nomination, also that his friends will support him always, and it is also known that not a few free silver Democrats will support him in preference to Carlisle or any other Republican or sound money man. It is also well known that Mr. Hunter signed a free silver agreement last winter.

What greater service could the Governor, who holds his commission from the people, perform than to prevent the election of a free silver man to the United States Senate, which he did last winter in calling out the militia to preserve order and peace and has since received the plaudits of all liberty-loving people.

The last two elections in Kentucky have made a great many converts to Republicanism, and to no man is due more honor for this than to Gov. Bradley. His fearless honesty has won the admiration of his people and I repeat he can serve the State no better than to prevent the election of a free silver Republican or Democrat.

THE RAIL BROKE.
Col. Will Porter, of Louisville, Painfully Hurt.

Was Hunting Yesterday, When He and a Barbed Wire Fence Got Together.

Col. Will Porter, the handsome "Battle Ax" boss, will not venture forth into society again for several days.

He is compelled to wear a bandage athwart his face, obscuring all evidences of pulchritude except his eyes and mouth.

Col. Porter and Messrs. Thompson, Short and Lyons, of Louisville, went hunting out near Lovelaceville several days ago. They had splendid sport, and nothing occurred to mar the pleasure of their outing until yesterday afternoon, when Mr. Porter attempted to get over a barbed wire fence, by climbing a rail. The rail broke, and he was precipitated upon the fence, cutting a painful and disfiguring gash on his nose.

Mr. Lyon accompanied him to Paducah last night, and the injury was dressed.

The remainder of the party returned from the hunt today.

MORE EVIDENCE.
Nick Mullen May Not Be Guilty of Perjury.

The Case Was Continued Until Monday Morning.

The case against Nick Mullen, colored, for perjury, was continued by Judge Sanders this morning, until Monday, on account of the absence of witnesses.

A colored man named Charles Moore, alias "Kid" Johnson, was not present. He is a railroad man, and the recognition against him of $100 was declared forfeited, and an attachment issued.

Judge Sanders said he didn't want the defendant held over unless he was guilty. He was recently tried for shooting at Rice Miller, colored, near Paul Street's saloon, on Washington street. He swore he did not do the shooting and had no pistol. The evidence showed that he did, but since it has developed that some of the witnesses are ex-convicts, and it is said that the facts in the case are that some one shot at Mullen, instead of him shooting at some one else.

While there's still time is the right time to get rid of a cough or cold or a throat or chest trouble. These are easiest of all disorders to neglect and the most serious in their results. The lungs are the most important and delicate organs of the human body; if harassed by a continuous hacking cough they will soon break down; that means consumption and consumption means death. Dr. Bell's Pine Tar Honey Cures coughs, colds and throat and chest troubles of all descriptions. It never fails. Druggists sell it. For sale by Ochsenschlaeger & Walker.

DRIFTWOOD
GATHERED ON THE LEVEE.

The river will be stationary here by tomorrow.

The ways and dry docks both put in six days this week.

The towboat Charley McDonald went up the Ohio this morning.

The Clyde is due here tomorrow from St. Louis en route up the Tennessee.

The local packets were all in and out on schedule time this morning to different destinations with fine trips.

The Sunshine from Cincinnati for Memphis passed down this morning after discharging several tons of freight here.

The two fine steamers, John S. Hopkins and Dick Fowler, were in and away on railroad time this morning, both for different points.

The Sunshine and Clarksville discharged a large amount of freight on the levee here this morning, which made that locality look quite businesslike.

The Ashland City is due here this afternoon out of the Tennessee river, and will lay over here tomorrow and will leave Monday at 10 a. m. for Danville.

The pretty little packet, City of Clarksville, arrived here last night with a fine load of freight. She left on her return trip to E'town today at noon.

The river is still coming up the bank but at a very slow gait and business continues to grow better down about the river's edge every day.

Coal boats will soon be putting in their appearance around the bend above the city with acres of barges loaded with fine Pittsburgh nuggets for southern points.

The Will J. Cummins leaves this afternoon for Florence and all way landings on the Tennessee river. She will carry a big cargo, as she usually does, on every Saturday. She leaves at 4 p. m. sharp.

The United States light house tender, Golden Rod, arrived from Cincinnati yesterday afternoon and passed down for Cairo. She returns up the Tennessee river on a discharging trip.

The marine ways was chuck full to the brim with repair work this week and working a full force of hands. All kinds of river traffic is opening up and before long everything will be going at full blast.

Mr. C. B. Reginald, general superintendent of the Western Union big cable, presented to Capt. Mason, of the tug Ida, about six inches of the cable as a souvenir of the work and it is a curiosity among the river men as well as any one else who never saw one.

It looked rather like ante-bellum days down about the river from this morning, and prosperity seemed to have struck the river traffic rather sudden from the amount of business that was going on in that locality this morning, and today was another big day in the way of departure as seven fine steamers left this port for different points up and down the various rivers and all seemed to be doing a landoffice business from the amount of freight and people they carried.

RAILROAD RUMBLINGS.

Items of Interest Relative to the Railroads and Railroad People.

N. C. AND ST. L. MILEAGE.

C. H. Starks, ex-sheriff of Marshall, is in the city today.

Attorney A. B. Lamb, of Paris, Tenn., was in on this morning's train.

Engine 307 from the south end local is now in the shops here undergoing slight repairs.

Fireman John J. Smith, of the 307, is running the switch engine in the Memphis yards, while his engine is in the shop.

Mike Duffey was handling the Johnson bar on the 306 out on local this a. m., a guarantee that she goes in on time.

Brakeman John Hall is quite ill with pneumonia at his boarding house, the residence of Mr. C. K. Rose.

Habacker and Schraven, that's the team who held down the boxes on the 68 as she rolled in this a. m. on the turn around.

The furniture factory must be doing an enormous business. Their shipments over this line alone being of huge proportions.

How often is that bet of Conductor Fulton on the election to be written up? asked one of the boys of Mileage last night.

Chief Clerk Dorris is as busy as a hen with one hand getting the pay rolls ready. He never fails to get them off to Nashville on time.

Harry Thornburg was too unwell to take his engine the 309 out yesterday p. m. and Jim Herring was her engine eye for the trip.

Mr. John Kelton, the round house foreman, left this p. m. to spend Sunday and eat a turkey dinner with his family over on his Illinois farm.

Wylie Thomas, "the infant," is feeding diamonds to 305 on south end local. Wylie is not much larger than a piece of soap, but he can burn out the best of them.

Martin, the druggist, of Murray, was a passenger in on the 104 last p. m. Mr. Martin was our "Compagnon de Voyage" last spring, and a truer old veteran does not live.

The clerks in all the offices were as busy as bees last night. This being the last day of grace for monthly reports to be sent in to headquarters accounts for their fit of industry.

Local in last night was some two hours late. "Get There" Bob Austin the "Con" says work and lots of it was the cause. It is something unusual for Bob to be off the dot.

Mose Storey drew the supplies for caboose 68 which swings to the hind end of Conductor Tudor's train. Mose says that after over three years' service he is back at his starting point.

Engineer Ben Rodgers lay off this trip preparing to move to Lexington, Tennessee. Ben's run is the local freight and his Sunday lay off is at that city, hence his change of residence.

Erin Frogg bade the boys all goodbye, and the last seen of him he was still waving his kerchief as the train rolled around the curve beyond Eleventh street, bearing him on to Texas.

The team belonging to Barry & Henneberger, which ran away yesterday morning, were not frightened by any train nor anything else connected with the railroad, as locally reported yesterday, but were scared by a passing street car.

Brakeman Hogwood tells a good one on himself. When some yards he was twisting chains on the N. Y. & N. H. R. on a passenger train, one of his duties was to call the station as the train slowed up into them. On one trip there was a big fat Dutchman and his wife occupying seats in the ladies' car. Hogwood called out the names as the stations were reached; among others, Brandywine, Beersville, Lincoln and Champagne, and at last he yelled, "All out for Iye!" Then the old teuton called him to his seat and said "Mine friend, can you tell me already how I have had to go before we get to Champagne?" Frank replied that it was the next place after they passed Grape Arbor.

A SEA TRAGEDY.

The startling story of the American barkentine Herbert Fuller.

The sea has ever been a favorable scene with romances for desperate conspiracies and tragic crimes. This has been due to the seclusion which it offers and also, perhaps, to the traditions of piracy which hang about it. There was a time when the line of demarcation between the pirate and the peaceful mariner was not very sharply drawn, and the late Prentice Mulford, who grew up in a seafaring town and had even served on shipboard before the mast, once wrote an article maintaining that the relations which still prevail between the master and the crew of a ship are a relic of the days when all seafaring men were practically pirates. Possibly a juster explanation of the harsh treatment to which sailors are subjected would be found in the
